Fee Structure and Information for season 2011/2012.

YSA and YA

As from June 2008 Yachting Australia and Yachting SA do not levy individuals for their fees. Instead the VHYC pays a club levy to YA and YSA .

- You will automatically become YA and YSA members when you join the VHYC.
- You will be issued with a Silver Card membership.
- The insurance benefits associated are still in place.

VHYC Life Members

- If you are a not active in your sport there is no fee for your membership.
- Life members still actively involved in sailing are charged a nominal fee

			TOTAL FEES Amount Due

Note # If you are YA registered at more than one club you need to decide which will be your primary club.

Note: Should a member have difficulty in payment of membership fees then application can be made to the Treasurer for consideration. These will be paid in advance and in 4 increments.

1. MEDICAL ALERT
 In trying to keep you safe please we need you to contact a member of the Bridge Crew to alert us of any medical condition that could affect you in a sailing situation. We only need to know things that would put you at risk.
 An example could be asthma, and for which you have been prescribed medication.
 The information will be confidential.
